

Early Careers (Graduates and school leavers) - Options Menu

1. One off 'Power half hour'(graduates) £49

A one-off session delivered via Zoom, to help you get results and fast. We'll talk about your career goals and I'll give you some practical tips on how to get there, with a graduate job search plan.

2. One off 'Power half hour'(school leavers) £49

A focused conversation on how to get yourself set up in the world of work, with your first experience of apprenticeship job hunting and tips for starting a CV and applications.

3. 999 Careers Session £99

Delivered online via Zoom, this 90 min session will help you with more detailed advice on career planning (if you're not sure what you want to do or how to get there if you do), along with some practical advice and top tips

4. Ongoing career coaching £150 (for x3 45 mins)

If you feel like you need further support, I can offer ongoing support to help you decide on where you want your career to go and how to get there. These are 45 min sessions delivered via Zoom, bookable in blocks of three.

5. New/Aspiring Managers £99 per hour

You may be completely new to the world of work but you know you want to move on up the ladder and become a manager in due course. Or you perhaps have a few years of work experience and are now a new or aspiring manager. Through one to one online coaching, I can help guide you through how you develop and utilise skills to make you a great leader and manager of people.

6. Training Sessions

If you are new, or returning, to the world of work, you may also be interested in my Talent Transformation Programme. Please look at my website, www.thetalentcycle.co.uk, for more information. I will also be offering a number of training sessions and workshops on lots of work related topics so keep an eye on the website and social media platforms for more information.

If you are currently not working and worried about investing at a time when you have a keen eye on your finances, then please do get in touch. I can assist you with a payment plan to spread the cost.
