"Train people well enough so they can leave, treat them well enough so they don't want to"

Richard Branson

Even if your organisation is lucky enough to have a dedicated Learning and Development person, or whole team, trying to manage their busy schedules along with delivering training can be a real challenge. Coupled with the fact that employees like to feel valued and invested in, and able to have the confidence to be open and honest in the training room, sometimes bringing in 'an outsider' is the best solution; and that's where I can help.

Life is already too busy and complicated so I like to keep things simple when it comes to how much you'll need to invest for my services. It is simply:

£100 per delegate

I run some virtual public courses, min 4 max 10 delegates (see home page for upcoming events)

I also offer in-house training, where I can deliver virtually or come to your office, with a minimum requirement of 8 delegates and can work with up to 20 delegates at a time (if your space allows). All for that bargain investment of £100 per delegate.

Training topics I deliver on include:

- Time Management
- Emotional Intelligence
- Teamwork (I also offer team building days)
- Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI)
- Leadership & Management
- Delegation Skills, Motivation & Feedback
- Coaching for Managers
- CPD/Development strategy - for you and others
- Performance Management & Managing difficult conversations
- And many more. Get in touch to find out further details.
